

Design Manager - Facilities & Architecture

Position Summary

The Design Manager – Facilities oversees architectural and facility design activities for transit stations, maintenance facilities, passenger amenities, and supporting infrastructure. The role ensures design quality, stakeholder coordination, code compliance, and successful project delivery.

Responsibilities

- Lead architectural design activities.
- Coordinate facility planning.
- Manage station improvements.
- Coordinate multidisciplinary design reviews.
- Support permitting.
- Manage consultant contracts.
- Coordinate accessibility (ADA).
- Coordinate stakeholder reviews.
- Support construction.
- Lead quality reviews.
- Manage project risks.
- Develop Design Management Plans.

Required Qualifications

- Licensed Architect preferred.
- Bachelor's degree in Architecture.
- 10+ years facility design.
- Transit architecture experience.
- Consultant management experience.